Jeanie and JP we are holding you, your family and your dad in our thoughts and prayers. Your family has always been a blessing in our lives. Some of my fondest memories as a kid were of spending time with your folks (and Thor!). Your dad always made time for us and we would sit and soak up all of the Albany stories, the Carioto stories, the jokes, the politics... Your mom would always have food to share and would listen to our stories... and Thor always was up for a walk or playing in the yard. After you guys came along, your dad's first stories were always updates on you both; he spoke with such pride as he talked about you guys as you went through school, college and into the "real world". Our kids were blessed to have Uncle Gus in their lives too. He would always have the perfect gift for them each Christmas, birthday, etc. We learned so much from our "Uncle Gus and Aunt Kathy" and we will always cherish those memories and the life lessons we learned from them.
