“ I was sorry to hear about the deaths of your mom. I worked with your dad and certainly knew your mom. I know she missed your dad and now they are together. My prayers and sympathy are with each of you. We always talked about our wonderful grandchildren. I shall miss her.

Pam, Tim, and Joe,

This is a touch late, but we are quarantined on the west coast, and I just heard of your Mom's passing from my sister Marcia in Albany.

Please accept our condolences, and sympathies, as we all mourn Marianne's loss.

The added loss I have is that Sheila and I never had the opportunity to visit and spend more time with your mom and dad. Being on the west coast for more than 30 years, we lost contact. It was those great rare moments where Joe and I spent some time by phone, and were able to catch up regarding family, health, and just stuff.

Pam, another regret was not spending time with you. It was an honor to be asked to be your godfather. Wish I could have been in the east more often to see you and your family. Your Dad always spoke with pride of the entire family.

Remember, I am the old guy, who spent early years working with your dad at State Bank of Albany in check sorting. I was there during those days when Joe and Marianne first dated, and saw their relationship grow. It was Marianne who made Joe work happier, faster and better(to impress her). It was Marianne who arranged the blind dates for Ted, and we had a great time.

As an aside, the glue in our relationship was the fact that your grandfather (Joe Cherries) and my dad were the best of friends. I and your dad golfed often with our dads and stayed later at the 19th hole to watch them drink with ease, but ultimately get the wrath of their wives.

Your family was wonderful, and it doesn't seem possible that both Joe and Marianne are gone. I can see that their strong background had great results....congratulations to you all in your careers and family growth. I would love you to meet my family some day.

We are now spending more time in Saratoga, as my daughter, Dona, has moved there, after many years in Oregon.

Again, our sympathies upon your loss. Just remember the good days.

I'm sorry that Covid-19 doesn't let us be with one another.

Stay well, best wishes,

Ted& Sheila Winnowski

“ I had the pleasure of knowing your amazing mom for years as her dental hygienist. She and your dad were two of the sweetest people I ever knew. I clearly remember them bringing me in a huge bag of books for my own dad when he fell and was hospitalized. Their kindness overwhelmed me. They would always visit my husband at Macy's when they would do their walks at Crossgates Mall. May your mom rest in peace and be with her beloved husband. It was a pleasure to have known her.

So very sorry to learn of your mom and grandmother's recent passing. Although we only met briefly, the joy in her demeanor remains a strong memory. What a delight! Trusting and praying that God will comfort all of you until you are reunited in Jesus.
