“ Dear Rick & Peggy & family,,
Rick, how sad it was to read that you have lost your dad. Always remember the fond memories you have of a very special man. He's a man that won't easily be forgotten. It's difficult to lose a parent no matter what the age. Such a sweet, kind and gentle person. You were fortunate to have such a loving Dad as Al was. We will always remember how kind he was to everyone. He touched a lot of lives during his lifetime. . Of course, me, June, I go way back to the elementary years of knowing both of your parents. You have been a lucky man, Rick, knowing you shared a loving home and some of the best years of your life having parents who dearly loved you. They couldn't have been more proud of a son than you as they would always express to many of us..
Al is now in the loving arms of Jesus and will always be your guardian angel. We thought the world of this man and it's amazing to see how much you look like him as well as having much of the same personalities. God granted him the life he was given ,95 years on this earth because of the way he lived his life. . How wonderful God is to reward him almost a Century of living on earth.
We are sending you and Peggy and grandchildren, your brothers too our loving sympathy and regrets. Our deepest thoughts and prayers will always be with you.
Arnold & June Busold.
