

Angela M. Pochman

March 21, 1920 - August 7, 2022

Albany-Angela M. Pochman, 102, entered into Eternal Life Sunday, August 7, 2022. Born in Albany she was the daughter of the late Marjan and Aniela Gasidlo Szczepkowski.

Angie received her Bachelors Degree from Siena College, and later 1968 she earned her Masters Degree.

She began working for the State Health Department as a Clerk. Angela retired as Chief of the Tariff Analysis Section of the NYS Power Division.

Angie worked for 10 years at the secretary of St. Casimir's Church in Albany, where she also took charge of the Christmas decorations.

Angie was a volunteer for St. Peter's Hospital and the Red Cross Blood Bank, and helped senior citizens complete income tax returns. She enjoyed cultivating a colorful flower garden at her home, and spending summer weekends boating on Sacandaga Lake. She enjoyed travelling, with many trips to Bermuda, Hawaii, and the Caribbean. Angie toured Poland, visiting her parents' birthplace and many of her relatives, which she called "a great thrill."

She was the dear sister of Felicia Mostek and the late Joseph Szczepkowski, John Szczepkowski, Stanley Szczepkowski and Genevieve Szczepkowski; aunt of Margaret Szczepkowski, Edward Szczepkowski (Jeannette), and Stanley Szczepkowski Jr; many other nieces and nephews survive.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Angela's family Tuesday, August 9, 2022 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm in Lasak & Gigliotti Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance only.

Funeral services Wednesday, August 10, 2022 at 10:30 am at Blessed Sacrament Church, 607 Central Ave. (Father John Bradley Way), Albany, NY 12206 where her Funeral Mass will be celebrated.

The Rite of Committal will be held at Our Lady of Angels Cemetery immediately following the Mass.
