

Angeline E. Robelotto

December 16, 1920 - November 29, 2011

Albany-Angeline Edith Robelotto, 90, died Tuesday, November 29, 2011 at St. Peter's Hospital. Born in Albany, she was the daughter of the late Guiseppe and Vincenza Cosentino LoMonoco. She was predeceased by her beloved husband Anthony F. Robelotto, in 2004.

Angeline was a hairdresser in her early adult years. A devout Catholic, she was longtime communicant and volunteer at the former Holy Cross Church in Albany. She was a dedicated wife and mother, and her family brought her great joy and happiness.

She was the dear mother of Cynthia Robelotto, Monica Robelotto (Erik Wight) and Vincent Robelotto (Shirley); grandmother of Cami, Diana, and Kerry; great grandmother of Evan, Kaylee and Kessler Rae; sister of the late Mary DeMayo, Rose Graziano, Josephine Morbidelli, Michael LoMonoco and Grace Graves; several nieces and nephews survive.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass Saturday, December 3, 2011 at 9:00 am at Blessed Sacrament Church, Albany.

Contributions in her memory may be made to the Make-A-Wish Foundation, 1 Mustang Drive, Cohoes, NY 12047 or www.neny.wish.org

“ *Aunt Angie,
I remember many fun times with you when Lauren was just a baby. We spent happy times together. .. whether having coffee and your homemade cookies, watching movies from Uncle Tony's library of movies, shopping for Christmas, or visiting you at Lake Luzerne, you were a special and very loving aunt. My deepest sympathy to Monica, Cynthia, Vincent and your grandchildren.
Love,
Susan Graves*
