

Anita S. Lansang-Millora M.D.

January 27, 1941 - December 30, 2011

Loudonville-Anita S. Lansang-Millora was born on January 27, 1941, in Manila, Philippines to Francisco and Aquilina Lansang, along with her brother, Francisco (“Kit”) Santiago Lansang, Jr., who predeceased her. She received her medical degree from the University of the East in 1964. She immigrated with her husband, Angel B. Millora, M.D., to Albany, New York in 1965 and eventually became a United States citizen. She practiced pediatric medicine at St. Peter’s Hospital, Albany Medical Center, Whitney M. Young, Jr. Health Center, SUNY at Albany Health Center, and the City School District of Albany, New York.

Together, Anita and Angel raised four daughters, Salina (“Gigi”), Rosanna (“Rosette”), Clarinda (“Rena”), and Melissa (“Lisa”). She was a second mother to sons-in-law, Bryan W. Brown, Kenneth B. Robin, and Peter F. Hutchins. She was a proud grandmother (“Lola”) to Quentin and Alexandra (“Sasha”) Millora-Brown, and Jaelin, Alexei (“Alex”), and Annika (“Anni”) Robin. Anita nurtured a close-knit community of friends and colleagues, opening her home to adopted family. She loved cooking, entertaining, music and dancing, and became a basketball, golf, and fishing enthusiast. Anita and Angel are the center of their family’s universe. Anita will be missed always.

“ *Dearest Ati,
You have been a big "sister" to us since we were young. Even Nanay was very appreciative to the assistance you gave her while raising us. We will forever be grateful to you. I always make it a point to call you whenever I'm in the USA to catch up with you, your family and our family. It's very hard to accept that you are not there anymore. We will miss you a lot. Paalam, Ati.
Much love,
Lit, Cecille, Nikki & Darwin*
