I had the pleasure of working with Anne at the US Postal Service in the CFS Unit for many years. She was extremely knowledgeable and a wonderful co-worker. I will miss her. God Bless her.

As a representative of the USPS Requirements Office, Ann dealt with many local mailers and mailhouses. It was always a great pleasure, (and relief) when Ann answered the phone when contacting the office. While the call involved questions about postal rules and other similar inquiries, you could count on Ann to be professional, thorough, courteous and right. Occasionally the conversation might have turned more personal, but all that did was to reinforce the relationship between business's. Remembering Ann when she held this position certainly paints the PO with brighter colors than of those that it shows today. I was sad to learn that Ann was leaving this position she had held and fulfilled so well back then and I am sad for the world to lose such a fine example of a caring human being.
