

Anthony Scipione

January 24, 1932 - January 4, 2024

Albany, NY-Anthony Scipione passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 4, 2024. Anthony was born on January 24, 1932, in Abbateggio, a small village in Abruzzo, Italy, son of the late Frank and Flavia DeCesare Scipione. He emigrated to the United States at the age of three with his mother, brother and sister, reuniting with his father in Albany, New York.

After graduating high school, he was drafted into the Army and served as a medic in the Korean War while stationed in Japan. He was honorably discharged from the military in 1954, then accompanied his mother back to Abbateggio where he first met and married his loving wife, Cristina, of 68 years.

Upon his return to the United States, he finished his degree at Hudson Valley Community College and began a 38 year career with the New York State Department of Transportation as an Architectural Draftsman.

Anthony was a devoted Catholic at St Vincent de Paul Parish. He loved telling jokes and tinkering around the house. Anthony loved nature and animals, and enjoyed the outdoors. He also loved listening to music and would occasionally play the harmonica. He cherished his family and deeply enjoyed their company, especially during family gatherings. His greatest joy was to dress up as Santa Clause and hand out gifts to all the family members at Christmas time.

Anthony is survived by his wife Cristina; daughter Kristin and son-in-law Adrian; son Anthony and daughter-in-law Teri; and three granddaughters Angela, Julia and Nicole; brother of the late Mary DeMarco (Peter) and Joseph Scipione; son in law of the late Sante and Rosa DeThomasis; brother in law of Josephine Gimondo, Anna DeThomasis, Marino and Matilda Nardone, Anna Ruzza, Nicola and Filomena Popolizio, and the late Anthony and Rose DeThomasis, Larry DeThomasis and Franco Ruzza; many nieces, nephews, and friends also survive.

The family would like to thank Dr. Carmen Giuliano, all the medical staff at St. Peter's Hospital, and medical staff at the Veterans Administration for all the attention and care they have given Anthony over the past several months. Also, thank you to Landmark and Marquis for all the medical care received at home.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Anthony's family Thursday, January 11, 2024 9:00 am to 10:30 am at St. Vincent De Paul Church, Madison Ave., Albany, NY. His Funeral Mass will follow at 10:30 am.

The Rite of Committal will be held at Evergreen Memorial Park, Schenectady, NY.
