

Dean J. Moore, Jr.

June 23, 1952 - February 5, 2014

Albany-Dean Joseph Moore, Jr., 61, passed suddenly into the loving arms of Our Lord on Wednesday, February 5, 2014.

Born in Albany, he was the cherished husband and best friend of Kathleen T. Moore for 34 years. He was the devoted son of Dolores (Smith) Moore and the late Dean J. Moore, Sr. Dean gave, tirelessly, his time, endless knowledge, resources, guidance, expertise, friendship, and love to all who were blessed to know him. Family meant everything to Dean and he meant everything to his family.

Dean established Video Environment +, Inc. in 1978. He also worked exceptionally hard every day operating his own coin machine business. He was a loyal NY Yankees fan, avid fisherman, Ham Radio enthusiast, and an amazing artist; participating in the Albany Historic Foundations Annual BUILT Auctions.

Survivors of Dean's legacy, in addition to his beloved mother and loving wife, include his brother, Robert (Susan) Moore; his loving mother-in-law Corrine "Meesie" LaRose; his children, who he supported and loved unconditionally: Nicolle, Ryan (Stephanie), Kristine, Sarah, and Heather; lovingly known as Grandpa, Grumpa, Papa to his eleven grandchildren - the lights of his life; he is also survived by sisters and brothers-in-law, and his deeply loved extended family.

His family will forever be grateful for his Guardian Angel Amy, who was by his side.

Relatives and friends are invited to call from 4:00 PM to 7:00 pm on Sunday, February 9, 2014 at the Lasak & Gigliotti Funeral Home, now located at 208 North Allen St., Albany, NY 12206.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Monday, February 10, 2014 at 10:30 a.m. at The Church of the Blessed Sacrament. Interment will follow in Our Lady of Angels Cemetery in Colonie. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider contributions in memory of Dean J. Moore, Jr., to the Albany Historic Foundation.

“ So many times I had thought about contacting you to see how our lives have grown over the past years. It is said you don't know what you have until it is gone. I look at it as if it were only yesterday, you stood next to me as my Best man at Joanne's and my wedding.

“ To Sarah and family,

Mary and I send our heartfelt condolences on this very sad occasion. Losing someone like Mr. Moore at such an early age is especially difficult. We hope the wonderful memories you have of him will help you in the days ahead. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To Dean's Family,

I am so sorry to hear of Dean's passing. We grew up across the street from each other and spent many hours swimming in his pool, playing Clue, spying on the "mansion" in our neighborhood and just hanging out with each other. He was a wonderful friend and from what I've read, grew to be an amazing man. Please know that you are all in my prayers. Though Dean and I went to different high schools and life placed us on different paths, he has been in my thoughts over the years. He will be missed by many.
