

Edward Adam Platt Jr.

February 26, 1946 - September 12, 2022

Guilderland- Edward “Ned ”Adam Platt, Jr., 76, entered Eternal Life Monday, September 12, 2022, at his residence. Born in Albany, NY to the late Edward and Natalie Semplenski Platt.

Ned was known to have a good joke ending with “Gotcha didn’t I?” He had a love for music, animals and M & M’s candy. His favorite was his stuffed unicorn, “Charlie” who never left his side. He enjoyed days with his friends at Albany ARC program and always look forward to returning home to his residence at Lexington ARC in the evening.

He was predeceased by his brother Peter E. (Jean) Platt.

Ned loved his family above all and is survived by his brother Jeffrey (Shelia) Platt; his nieces and nephews Michael, Jillian, Cindy, Mark, Laura, Amy and Julie; cousins Martin Browne and Tina Grant; also survived by several extended family members and friends.

The family wishes to thank Carl Nelson of Lexington ARC, lifetime friend, Dominick Rappazzo and great nieces Gwendolyn and Adrienne O’Malley for their kindness and care of Ned all these years.

The family also wishes to thank the people of Lexington ARC for the excellent care and compassion extended to Ned and his family for so many years.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Ned's family Monday, September 19th, 2022, 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at St. Pius X Chapel, 23 Crumitie Rd, Loudonville, NY 12211.

Funeral services Tuesday September 20th, 2022, at 11:30 am at St. Pius X Church, Loudonville, NY at 11:30 am where his Funeral Mass will be celebrated.

The Rite of Committal will be held at Our Lady of Angels Cemetery immediately following the Funeral Mass.

“ *Jill,
I'm sorry to hear of the passing of your Uncle Ned. It sounds like he was a kind and gentle soul.
Gwen and Adrienne, it's good to know that you were such a comfort to your great Uncle. I'm sure he loved spending time with you.
Hopefully there's a 'Platt's Place' in heaven where he can pull up a chair and tell a good joke over a cup of coffee.
I wish you peace.*

“ Jeff,
Your Mom and Dad are sad but still so pleased that Ned lived comfortably for 76 years on this earth and will now have a joyous reunion meeting with them in heaven.
