“ We are so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during difficult times. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 we are promised that very soon now, 'death will be brought to nothing'. Then, we have the prospect of being reunited with our loved ones right here on earth (John 5:28,29). I hope this has brought you some comfort and hope. Sincerely, Gwen.

“ To the Ryan Family and Sally, Eddie's loving companion and closest friend, we are both hearbroken over the passing of Eddie. Functions with the Limericks or at the American Legion Post will not be the same without Eddie. He was a warm, friendly and genuine person. He loved his family and friends and enjoyed life. God bless Eddie, we will never forget him, and we will pray for him always.

“ Ahhh...Eddie my friend, you left too soon. I am thinking about the North Albany days, High School, Ironworking, bouncing around town...and Elvis. I will miss the "sporty" look of your collar up and hair just right and the smile that wasn't quite a laugh. Sally, my heart goes out to you and my deepest condolences for your loss...please know that both you and Eddie are and will remain in my prayers Mike Myers

“ Debbie and Babe,
What do you say to express the sorrow we feel at the sudden loss of Eddie. He was a great guy who will be so missed by so many. What ever the plan for him is now, we know that his Irish eyes will always smile upon us all. Please accept our deepest condolences.

“ I will DEFINITELY miss seeing Eddie at the North Albany Legion Post. Every time that I would come to Albany on vacation in the summertime I would stop down to the Legion Post especially to see Eddie and have a brew or two or three (lol) with him. When Eddie was growing up, we only lived two houses away from each other. Many good memories.

When I was up to Albany from Fort Lauderdale, Florida a few months ago, after Eddie and I had those few brews together, he closed up the Legion Post and I drove him home.

I was hoping to see him in about two weeks when I plan to be in Albany again.

May he Rest In Peace. GREAT GUY and will be missed by all that were lucky enough to know him.

“ To The Ryan Family Mike and I are so sorry for your loss. The only thing I can think of to bring you comfort is that there were an awful lot of Burden Lake Angels in Heaven to greet him and bring him peace. Our thoughts are with you all. Mike and Nancy
