

Esther M. Jasinski

March 27, 1921 - December 16, 2015

Albany-Esther M. Jasinski, 94, died Wednesday, December 16, 2015 at Evergreen Commons. Esther was born on Easter Sunday March 27, 1921 in Albany to Jerome and Anna (Picciano) Caputo. She was the sister of the late Frank Caputo, Nancy Geragosian, Danny Caputo, Rocco Caputo, Madeline Pierle and Ben Caputo.

Esther graduated in 1938 from Albany High School. She worked at Albany Medical Center Hospital Diet Department for 3 years and at Winthrop-Sterns Chemical Plant for 10 years as a Types and Clerk, until her marriage to Joseph Jasinski in 1950.

An active member of many groups and organizations, including DAV Veterans Auxiliary, Albany Polish American Citizens Auxiliary, Joseph E. Zaloga American Legion Post Auxiliary, Albany Elks Auxiliary, Senior Citizens Club and Arts and Crafts Organizations.

Esther was the party giver in the family. Her house was always open to all every holiday, full of family and friends, lively conversation, good food, music, games and fun.

She was the caregiver to her mom and all who needed her whenever needed. A fun and loving aunt to all of her nieces and nephews.

Her hobbies included playing the accordion, the organ, arts and crafts, many clubs, traveling and taking many cruises.

Always surrounded by friends and family, Esther has always been the source of much joy, happiness and love.

Funeral services will be held privately.

“ It was always a joy to talk to Aunt Ester. The conversations were always about the joys of family and the life of Uncle Joe before his passing. Her favorite saying was "he always treated me like queen and took care of me. " May she rest in peace.
