

Francesco Giglio

November 6, 1953 - August 20, 2021

Glenmont—Francesco Giglio, 67, passed away suddenly on August 19, 2021. Frank was born in Sorbo San Basile, Italy he was the son of the late Giacomo and Rosa Scalise Giglio.

Frank retired from the Capital District Psychiatric Center after almost 40 years of service. Frank lived life to the fullest and immensely enjoyed his family, friends, cooking for others, gardening, the horses, the casino and playing bocci. His most endearing trait and one we will most remember him for is his sense of humor and endless funny stories. The yearly ritual of sauce, sopressata and wine making was very special to him and he loved sharing the experience as well as the results with all. He was a member of the Polish American Citizens Club and the West Albany Italian Benevolent Society. Frank was an incredible husband, father, uncle, cousin and friend to all! He touched so many lives and we will truly be missed by all who knew him.

He was the beloved husband for 29 years of Patricia Gecewicz Giglio, father of Giacomo (Maria Foglia) and Caterina (Alex Stewart). Grandfather to his precious fur babies Gemma, Jojo and Duke. Best friend and side kick to Carl C. Shank. Many nieces and nephews, cousins and large extended family and friends.

“ I am Dom's aunt and I remember sitting in the bleachers at Catholic Central when she and Caterina were playing soccer. He was very proud of her. The memory that I remember vividly was a tree that he pointed out to me at one of the games. The leaves turned silvery when the wind blew. It was such a beautiful moment. He had his eye on the game, but also appreciated God's beauty. May his memory be eternal!

“ sorry to hear of the loss of Frankie. I cant help but to remember Frank and Carl stopping into the safety Dept. daily and having a seat to talk, have a coffee and shoot the breeze about casino, gardening, and family. The visit was always cut short by Frankie saying C'mon Carl we got work to do! You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Frankie was one of the first people I met when I started with the state. Frankie was always one of my go to guys for my 37 years there. He was a great friend with an awesome sense of humor and an infectious laugh. He absolutely love his family and bragged about his kids and wife. I am really saddened by his passing, but Frankie definitely gave me memories to last through out my life. Love you Frankie. Thanks for the memories and God bless.
