

Frank Giglio

December 3, 1947 - September 23, 2014

Albany-Frank Giglio, 66 , died Tuesday, September 23, 2014 at St. Peter's Hospital surrounded by his loving family. Born in Sorbo San Basile, Italy he was the son of the late Vincenzo and Teresa Serviotti Giglio.

Frank retired from Callanan Industries after 35 years with the Construction and Laborers Local Union 190. He lived life to the fullest and enjoyed vacationing, picnicking, playing bocci, and his biggest joy was spending time with his family. He will always be remembered as the phenomenal singer of the Good Times Band for over 40 years. He did everything with passion. He made homemade wine, sopressata, and enjoyed gardening and sharing it all with his friends and family. He was a member of the West Albany Italian Benevolent Society and the Order of Sons of Italy in America Lodge #321. Frank was an amazing husband, father, Nonno, brother, uncle, and friend to all! He touched so many lives and he will truly be missed by all who knew him.

He was the beloved husband for 41 years of Antoinette Mancuso Giglio; father of Teresa (Anthony) Gross, Dr. Vincent (Katie) Giglio, and Sabrina (Brian) Viglucci; grandfather of Gianna, Joseph, Isabella, Giuliana, Julia, Michael and Frank; brother of Livia (late Salvatore) Oliveti and Maria (late Antonio) Notaro; son in law of the late Peter and Ida Mancuso; brother in law of Carlo and Angela Futia, Ralph and Josephine Commisso; many nieces, nephews, cousins and large extended family and friends survive.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Frank's passing. I have such fond memories of him at the IBS and especially in the Variety Show which is how I got to know him. His voice was soothing and velvet. When he would sing in Italian, it made me think of my Dad who has been gone many years, and all of my Italian relatives who have passed. I often mourn the loss of the true Italian heritage in my family and Frankie had a way of reminding me of that. I'll never forget the first rehearsal when I had the opportunity to taste, no - to indulge in his homemade sopressata and wine, while he sang Happy Birthday to me in Italian. Our community has certainly lost a true Italian gem - A gentle soul and a genuinely nice man. My heartfelt condolences to his family and friends. I've heard it said that everyone dies 2 deaths - the first is the death of the body and the 2nd is when the last person to remember him dies. To Frank's family - please know that Frank's voice, his gentleness and his kindness live on in the memories of all who were fortunate enough to know him. With much sympathy...
