I don't know if you will even see this or not as it is so long after the passing of your mom. I didn't realize she has passed until today (4/13/14). I found out in December when I was delivering flowers to VRM for our church that she was a patient there. We just delivered Easter flowers and when I looked for her I was told that she had passed. I am so sorry for your loss and even more so that I was not able to say goodbye or pay my respects. I would have been at her service had I known.

Helen was always very good to me and I will always remember that. Even with all the drama that was my later childhood she never judged and didn't seem to take sides. I really appreciated that and hope that she knew that.

Please know that she was someone special to me growing up as was your dad. She is at peace now and looking down on us all I am sure.

Take care and God Bless.

“ Dear Harmon Family,

May you find comfort in your mothers memories, and strength in the companionship of the life you shared together! Your tears are not unnoticed by the Creator of Life, Psalm 34:17, 18. I certainly hope the help God can give at this time will make a difference. I pray the tender mercy that God has always shown be with you now. May the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength, comfort and courage each day! Revelation 21:3-5 mentions a time when God will wipe all our tears away, death, sorrow and pain will be no more. May these thoughts from the scriptures bring you comfort and hope during this sad time!

With heartfelt condolences,

“ *Suzanne and family,
We are deeply sorry for the loss of your mother. Hopefully the memories of your mom will lessen the sorrow you feel now.*

I am not sure you remember my family. My dad, Edmund Lennon was your mom's first cousin. Both my mom and dad have passed. I remember your parents attending many events at my parents home in Colonie. They truly enjoyed each others company.

I did not see your mom's obituary until tonight. I am sorry we could not attend the wake. My parents would have wanted me to show my respects.

and Brendan*
