Janet was born in Albany, NY, the youngest of three children and only daughter to the late William and Ruth Towsley Hohenstein, joining two older brothers on April 13, 1942.

Janet attended Cardinal McCloskey High School and the Academy of the Holy Names and worked as an operator for the NY Telephone Company at the age of 18. In 1962, she married F. She went back to school and earned an Associate's degree in Computer Science graduating summa cum laude from Albany Business College in 1990, the same year her son earned a Medical Doctorate and her daughter a Bachelor of Science degree. She was instrumental in the success of her children.

Janet was a stunning beauty in her youth with an unforgettable smile throughout her lifetime. She was a lover of animals and derived much joy from her Bichon Frise dogs and their offspring as did the entire extended family for many years.

Chris, Erin, and Gabe. So sorry to hear of your loss! Janet was such a great mom and person. I have so many great memories of her and her love for her family. Every so often I still laugh at things that remind me of her even from so many years ago. I'm sure she's taking care of all the dogs in heaven. Hold on to the great memories and remember how blessed you all have been to have had her in your lives for so long. Sincerely Renee Schepisi
