

John "Jack" Walsh

April 19, 1938 - March 3, 2012

Albany-John M. "Jack" Walsh, 73, died Saturday morning, March 3, 2012 at Albany Memorial Hospital. Born in Manhattan, he was the son of the late John and Frances Kelly Walsh. He worked for the NYS Thruway Authority after retiring as a Sales Associate for Singer Co and National Nail Co.

Jack coached for over thirty years at the Colonie Little League, where he also was a past president. He was a member for over twenty years of the Capital District Baseball Umpire's Association, and longtime member of the Colonie Elks and Polish American Citizens Club. Jack enjoyed trips to Las Vegas, and his family and friends will treasure all the wonderful memories and stories from those trips.

He was the husband of the late Barbara Anisky Walsh; father of John M. Walsh Jr (Carol) and Christopher D. Walsh (Nadine); grandfather of Ava Victoria Walsh; brother of the late William Walsh and Patrick Pryor; several nieces and nephews also survive.

The family would like to express a heartfelt thank you for the care and concern to Lawrence Garbo, MD, the staff at NYOH, and the nurses at Memorial Hospital.

“ To the Walsh Family:

It is a dark time in Colonie, to lose such an icon as Mr. Walsh. Please know that we, especially the young men were blessed to have known. May you find comfort in the many lives he has touched.
