

June P. Wolfe

June 22, 1937 - May 26, 2020

Albany - June P. (Watso) Wolfe, 83, of Albany, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on Tuesday, May 26, 2020 at Teresian House Nursing Home.

She was born in Albany on June 22, 1937 to the late John Watso and Anna (Rukavina) Watso. Siblings include the late William and Thomas Watso.

She was married to the late John R. Wolfe, beloved husband for 41 years. Even though she will be deeply missed, her family takes solace in knowing they are reunited once again.

June was a Native American Indian from the Abenaki Tribe. She spent most of her adult life contributing her love, pride, time, and talent to many civic and charitable endeavors for the Algonquin-First Star Nation. This led to her winning the Spirited Achievement Award as a Native American Educator.

Growing up in Albany, she attended St. Joseph Academy graduating in 1955. In her earlier career, June worked as one of the founders of Albany Civic Theater, Schenectady Civic Theater and Cohoes Music Hall. She also worked as a Production Assistant in television variety shows for the local TV networks on ABC, CBS, and NBC. At the age of 40, she attended the University at Albany, where she studied costuming, design, and drafting.

Among her creative achievements, June was the first Wardrobe Supervisor for Capital Repertory Theater and Resident Costume Designer for Russell Sage College for 16yrs, where she contributed her practical experience to the theatre arts group. She was the Costume Designer for the city of Albany which included Shakespeare in the Park, Park Playhouse Summer Theater in Washington Park, as well as the Park Playhouse II, an educational program for young people touching on all aspects of live theatre. In New York City she worked as the Resident Costume Designer for Moonwork Inc., helping to produce original adaptations of Shakespeare. She was the Wardrobe Supervisor on Broadway for "Hizzoner", starring Tony LoBianco. She went to Moscow, Russia with the NYS Theater Institute as a stitcher and dresser for Peter Pan and Hizzoner.

Her commitment was felt by the community as a resource to the creative process. It can be said that, at one point in her career, she held in her hands all the keys to every theater and costume shop in the Capital Region.

Survivors include Paul (Tildy) Wolfe, Gregory (Jensen) Wolfe, Roxanne (Jay) Wolfe, Elizabeth (Christopher) Slate, and James (Brandee) Wolfe. Six Grandchildren: Lauren, Branden, Liam, Sydney, Arden and Heather. Two Great Grandchildren: Hunter and Logan, and 11 nieces and nephews. And a special thanks to June's sisters in life, Patricia Devane and Mickey Slavin for their love, devotion and friendship.

We wish to thank the doctors, nurses, aides, and staff of Teresian House Nursing Home for their wonderful care of Junebug.

The family is asking that donations be sent to Teresian House for their heartfelt commitment and tireless care to our loved ones.

www.teresianhouse.org

Due to the current state of affairs, a memorial service will be announced at a later date.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ To the Wolfe family .it's been a year since mama Wolfe has passed.she was so loved an loved by everyone who knew her an me too.she loved my children they were her grandchildren Lauren an Branden wolfe.i was married to Paul t.wolfe.i had the joy of knowing June or as my kids called her mama Wolfe for over 25years.she was a wealth of knowledge an loved unconditionally everyone.shes missed by all an me too but will never be forgotten.my love an remembrances to all family,with love...Suzanne Steimer-Wolfe

Suzanne steimer - June 07, 2021 at 03:06 AM

NM

“ To the Wolfe's my heartfelt condolences to the family. God bless you all...neil Mitchell(old Hudson ave neighbor)

Neil Mitchell - June 06, 2020 at 05:39 PM