

Louis A. Marozzi

November 10, 1931 - July 26, 2013

Loudonville: Louis A. Marozzi, 81, passed away July 26, 2013 at St. Peter's Hospital surrounded by his family. Born in Bristol, PA he was the son of the late Augustine and Caroline Angelaccio Marozzi.

Louis proudly served his Country by enlisting in the Navy and serving in the Korean War. He was the owner of Colonial Plumbing and Heating for the last 36 years. One of his proud passions was cooking for friends and family, and he enjoyed vacations in warmer climates.

He was the beloved husband of Shirley Hatcher Marozzi, devoted father of Mark Marozzi (Debbie) and Paul Marozzi (Gina), cherished grandfather of Lauren, Ashley, Carmella and Nicholas Marozzi, brother of Joseph Marozzi (Jacklyn), Michelle Sawyer (Jerry), brother in law of Sylvia Marozzi, he was predeceased by his sister Betty Cordisco (Dave), and brother Augustine Marozzi Jr. He is survived by several nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his beloved dogs Taco and Bell.

Funeral services will be private at the convenience of the family. Louis was a strong advocate for religious education, supporting numerous organizations, those wishing to remember him in a special way may send contributions to Christian Brothers Academy, 12 Airline Drive, Albany, NY 12205 Or St. Pius X School, 75 Upper Loudon Rd, Loudonville, NY 12211

“ I was very sorry to read about Lou in today's Times Union. He always made me feel that he was glad to see me, and appreciated whatever business I gave Colonial. I always admired Lou and feel the community lost a stand-up guy. The only consolation here is he leaves two really great sons who customers will continue to admire! Dick Gallager (Max Remodeling)

“ Shirley,

Just to let you know how sorry I am about Lou's passing. He was one of the most kindest, generous people I have ever met and will be sorely missed by many. I am proud to say that he was not only a wonderful neighbor, but a great friend as well.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your entire family as this very sad time.

With much love,

June Mele

“ Shirley,
I can't tell you how sorry Lisa and I are about Lou's passing. He is the type person that " To know him is to LOVE him " Lou had the most welcoming smile and personality. He will be sorely missed by everyone who had the pleasure to know him. Lisa will miss running into him at the Racino.
You and the family will be in our prayers.
We Love You,
Michael and Lisa
