“ My fondest memory of Maria Rizzo is lifting her two fig trees with my sister Rosa from her downstairs kitchen to her back patio for the summer. She watched us with pride as we hauled the fig trees out. And boy were they heavy, but we managed it. She followed us to her patio and she inspected them with pride, as she checked to make sure there was enough soil and water. Meanwhile her cat Ni was playing nearby chewing on grasses and frolicking.

Maria was the kindest loving person I will always remember.

Rest in Peace Maria.

Love, Angela Paonessa.
