February 20, 1919 - July 7, 2012

Loudonville-Mary Cullen McDonough, 93, passed peacefully into Eternal Life Saturday, July 7, 2012. She died at home surrounded by the love of her family. Mary was the youngest of 6 children born to immigrant Irish parents; she began her life in Westchester County on the Butler Estate. After relocating to the Bronx and Manhattan, Mary graduated from Julia Richmond High School in Manhattan. During WW II Mary met and married her husband of 62 years and relocated to North Albany in 1945.

Mom quietly supported many community causes, working behind the scenes and leaving the limelight for family and friends. Mary was an avid crossword puzzle enthusiast, a wonderful cook and an accomplished seamstress; her greatest joy was spending time with her family; each new baby was her delight. Predeceased by her husband, William F. (Pete) McDonough in 2005, Mary is survived by her daughters and son-in-law: Patricia McDonough, Kathleen (O'Malley) and James Lawlor, and Anne McDonough. Mary considered her 12 grandchildren Carolyn (Darren) Franceski , Robin (Christopher) Loatman, Heather (Miguel) Perez, Alysha (Erik) Claudio, Erin (Bryan) Scaringe, Maribeth (Joseph) Young, Patrick (Jodi) O'Malley, Brian Damon, Maureen (KC) Pierre, Christopher (Gina) Damon, Daniel Fobare, and Peter Fobare and 20 great-grandchildren the crowning jewels and blessings of her life. I was so saddened to hear of your Moms passing. While in Albany today I rode past 1312 and smiled remembering all our happy times both there and at the camp. I will always think of your parents with such fondness. They were a large part of my life growing up and they will be a treasured memory always. Love, Joyce
