October 12, 1922 - April 15, 2019

Rose loved her family and enjoyed cooking Sunday dinner for them. She loved crocheting and her gardens. Most visits with Rose included a walk through the yard to look at her rock garden and vegetables. She was the former President and life member of the Polish American Citizens Ladies Auxiliary, Albany, NY. She was well known for her galumpkis and taught many people how to make them. Before her husband's death, they enjoyed trips to Mexico and Hawaii and rides on their boat, 'Rosie.'

Rose is survived by her grandchildren Michelle (Kevin) Gill, Suzanne (Bill)

Divinsky, Erica (Chris) Shea, Peter J. Levanites III, and Kurt (Christa) Levanites; she is also survived by her great grandchildren Christopher, Matthew, Andrew and Jack Shea, Shealynn, Justin, and Jasmine Levanites, her daughter in law Pamela Levanites and her sister Josephine Hermann. “ Aunt Rose was one of a kind. She made me many doilies which I have around the house. I love them. She was so strong and so sweet with a great sense of humor. Her and Uncle Pete were quite a team. She gardened forever. Growing up we always spent Thanksgiving there and she made my dad steak since he didn't care for turkey. You will be missed thanks for the wonderful memories. Love Deb and family.
