

Shirley A. Marino

April 17, 1929 - December 6, 2012

Albany-Shirley A. Marino, 83, died Thursday, December 6, 2012 at home. Born in Troy, she was the beloved daughter of the late Michael and Ida Goyette Marino. Shirley was a 1947 graduate of Catholic Central High School. She went on to serve during the Korean War in both the Marine Corps, and Air Force. Shirley worked in Washington, DC as the Manager and Director of the International Development Intern Program. Her work in Washington was very meaningful to her, and included extensive international travel. She enjoyed golfing, along with volunteer work and activities at the Beltrone Living Center.

Shirley was the dear sister of Rita Bania-Cinney (George), Joan Fobare, and the late Mary Dugrenier (Orville); several nieces and nephews survive.

“ Hi Shirley!!

I was blessed to have known such a special lady. I learned a lot from you, i could always talk to you and share my feeling about things, you always made me feel better. We would share stories and have some good laughs. I enjoyed helping and caring for you, even with the ups and downs you never complained. When you got a skin tear or sprung a leak you would say dont worrie you can fix it you always do. I know you are in a beautiful place and are at peace. God and the angels will watch over you always I will miss you.

*Love

“ Hi Shirley!!

I am so glad to have met such a savy investor such as yourself. We've talked about business, Jesus, and your faith in going to heaven. I know you are safe and blessed beyond measure now. What an awesome life you have led managing the International Development program out of Washington D.C. for The U.S. government. Many blessings to you in heaven!

“ Hi Shirrrllllllll, Thats how you knew it was me walkin in the door when i yelled hi shirrrlllll... i miss you <3 hope your comfortable up there.. i know they had those gates wide open for you. I know when we all made the wrong turn into the cemetary that you were back there yelling wrong way !!!! that was the first thing gram and i said to each other. Make sure you let us know you are here once in awhile.. keep an eye out on us from up there and put in a good word (which im sure you already have).. well, see you later never good bye. Love you
