

Viola S. Sowinski

February 15, 1920 - August 26, 2013

Albany-Viola Kalandyk Sowinski passed away August 25, 2013 at the Albany Medical Center Hospital surrounded by her devoted children and nephew, Mark Hanley. Viola was predeceased by her beloved husband Chester J. Sowinski. Viola was the daughter of the late Valentine and Sophie Kalandyk.

Viola was a graduate of Albany High School and Mildred Elley Business School. A very proud World War II Veteran, Viola served in the 8th Air Force based in High Wycombe, England under the command of General James Doolittle.

Mrs. Sowinski was the proprietor of the Kalan Hosiery Shop and the Central Fish Market in Albany. Later she was employed at the Albany County Courthouse and the Albany City Board of Education as Health Insurance Administrator. Subsequent to retirement, she was employed by the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance.

Her avocations included traveling with her family, studying foreign languages (Russian, Chinese, Spanish, Italian and German), reading, cooking and gardening. Her travels took her to England, Scotland, France, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Italy, China, Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, Poland and many states in the USA.

Viola is survived by her beloved children, Chester of Slingerlands, Barbara Ann of Mystic, CT, and Valerie of Albany. She is survived by her sister Sophie Hanley and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brothers, John, Walter, infant Walter and her sister, Florence.
